

INSTANT CITY RELOADED EVENT - MARATHON

Central St. Martins, West Handyside Canopy, Handyside Street, King's Cross, London, Saturday, 21th of May from 12.00 - 00.00

Instant City Reloaded is a project shared by the Zurich University of the Arts (ZHdK) and today's incarnation of Cabaret Voltaire, the birthplace of Dada in Zurich, in collaboration with Central Saint Martins. It is adapted from a concept by Archigram, the experimental architecture group from London active in the 1960s and 1970s, sought to bring together in art disparate parts of society by means of provisional performance spaces. On May 21 a large delegation from Zurich infiltrates King's Cross with their inflatable "Dada tent". Join us for an orgiastic 12-hour event-marathon where artists, lecturers, poets, performers and students from all over the world will trade metaphorical as well as physical - possibly even bloody! - blows inside a very real boxing ring.

The event-marathon forms tribute to the proto-Dadaist, pugilist and poet Arthur Cravan. His parents were British, his language was French, his passport was Swiss. He was the self-proclaimed nephew of Oscar Wilde and he believed passionately that art was not just a matter of the mind, but also of heart and guts.
